Customer Information - End of transition period for transshipment-containers on 31st July, 2011

Dear customers,

On 31st July, 2011 the transition period for seagoing transshipment-containers in Hamburg and Bremerhaven will end. As of 1st August, 2011 it will be mandatory that a BHT- respectively B- or S-number is available at the terminal in order to ensure the loading of transshipment-containers.

Team Lines will as a party to the „Import-Platform“ (IMP) in Hamburg respectively the „Business Integration Platform“ (BIP) in Bremerhaven transfer the IFTMCS for inbound and the COPRAR-Load for outbound vessels to IMP/BIP.

Please ensure that as of 1st August, 2011 all transshipment-containers have a valid BHT- respectively B- or S-number. In case containers are short-shipped due to missing BHT- respectively B- or S-numbers we will have to charge you for the transport because of the administration incurred for Team Lines.

In case you have further questions please contact your local Team Lines office. Further information is also available at <http://www.imp-hamburg.de/docs.html>.

Best regards
